

Selient and CRI Canada announce product integration agreement

Toronto, May 9, 2006 - Selient Inc. (TSX Venture: HTI) and CRI Canada announced today that they have reached an agreement to integrate the credit insurance products marketed by CRI Canada into ProLender, Selient's consumer loan origination product.

Bryan McCaw, President and CEO of Selient stated, "By developing an interface to ProLender, CRI Canada customers will be able to take advantage of our flow-through processing platform. The integration will greatly reduce the amount of time and the number of errors associated with credit insurance processing. Our ASP platform facilitates robust integration and allows one physical interface to service all of our customers. CRI Canada will be our 15th high-quality interface with Canadian credit union service providers."

Tom Dutta, General Manager of CRI Canada stated, "The integration of our insurance products into ProLender benefits our organization and our shared customers. The integration will give CRI Canada direct access to Selient's existing customer base. For our customers, it will mean that the credit insurance underwriting process will occur more efficiently, saving them time and money. We're looking forward to working with Selient and their outstanding customer base."
